

In addition to the donation from the collection, Spectra Home is also offering the proceeds from the Chair of Hope fund raiser next spring to help support a grant. This Market Spectra Home is inviting showroom visitors to sign their healing intentions on a piece of fabric that will be used to upholster a chair from the Tamara Day by Spectra Home collection. “We hope that The Chair of Hope, infused with hopeful, helpful energy will bring someone fighting breast cancer a sense of support, good health, and heartfelt wishes for their recovery,” Telleys concluded.

About The Common Thread for the Cure:

A 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization, The Common Thread for the Cure Foundation was established in 2000 by Suzann Burkhead-Bray and Scott Burkhead in memory of their sister, Sandra Burkhead Campbell, who lost her long-term battle with breast cancer in February 1999. The organization has awarded more than 300 grants to recipients in 30 states, Canada, and Mexico—and the number is increasing each year. Raise your hand and join us.
