“We would like to thank all of the companies and individuals for their continued support of The Common Thread for the Cure Foundation,” stated Rob Mayer, Foundation chair and president of Mayer Fabrics. “Because of their generosity we have awarded over $1.5 million in confidential grants to over 360 people since its inception. The grants are intended to enhance quality of life and can be used to meet any financial obligations, household needs and transportation to medical appointments. Our grants help provide freedom from financial stress so cancer survivors can maintain as normal a lifestyle as possible.”

About The Common Thread for the Cure:

A 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization, The Common Thread for the Cure Foundation was established in 2000 by Suzann Burkhead-Bray and Scott Burkhead in memory of their sister, Sandra Burkhead Campbell, who lost her long-term battle with breast cancer in February 1999. The organization has awarded more than 360 grants to recipients in 37 states, Canada, and Mexico—and the number is increasing each year. Raise your hand and join us.
