Laura Holland: Vice president of marketing at Hickory Chair Co, Laura is a remarkable five-year breast cancer survivor, and her journey is one of strength and resilience.

Lorelei Colbert: An inspirational speaker, creator and advocate for young women, Lorelei, who was diagnosed at a very young age, is a three-year breast cancer survivor and thriver.

Christi Barbour: Founder and partner at Barbour Spangle Design and the creative force behind High Point Discovered, Christie was diagnosed with breast cancer just one year ago and will share her empowering story.

The emcee for the evening will be:

Connie Post: CEO/Owner of Connie Post Affordable Design Solutions and The High Point Connection, Affordable Designs Retail Store, Connie is a six-year breast cancer survivor, whose leadership and positive spirit inspires us all.

Join us for hors d'oeuvres, wine and beer while you learn about the many ways you can help, how you or an immediate family member can apply for a confidential grant, and to hear from survivors in our industry how they have overcome the challenges to maintain as normal a life as possible.

Thank you to Spectra Home who is donating a portion of the proceeds from its Tamara Day by Spectra Home Collection to the Common Thread for the Cure.

We are so grateful for your support.
